

Barton Deakin Brief: WA Ministry

26 September 2016

The Premier of Western Australia, the Hon Colin Barnett MLA, has announced several changes to the WA Ministry.

These changes were required after the resignation of two former ministers, Minister for Agriculture and Food and Minister for Transport, Hon Dean Nalder MLA and the Minister for Minister for Local Government, Minister for Community Services, Minister for Seniors and Volunteering, and Minister for Youth, the Hon Tony Simpson MLA.

WA Ministerial Arrangements

The changes to the WA Ministry are outlined below:

- The Hon Mark Lewis MLC, Member of the Legislative Council for Mining and Pastoral Region, is the new Minister for Agriculture and Food;
- The Hon Paul Miles MLA, Member for North Metropolitan Region, is the new Minister for Local Government in addition to his existing role as Minister for Community Services, Minister for Seniors and Volunteering and Minister for Youth;
- The Hon Bill Marmion MLA, in addition to his role as Minister for State Development and Innovation, adds Transport;
- The Hon Sean L'Estrange MLA retains the Mines and Petroleum as well as Small Business and adds Finance.

The new Ministers were sworn into their new positions by the Governor of Western Australia, HE the Hon Kerry Sanderson AO on Friday.

A full list of the WA Ministry is enclosed.

The next WA State Election will be held on Saturday 11 March 2017.
